

2017 Family Medicine Resident of the Year Award Nomination Instructions and Form

The Family Medicine Resident of the Year Award recognizes outstanding clinical, research, leadership and teaching skills in a family medicine resident currently enrolled in a family medicine residency program in Ontario.

Nomination is open to candidates enrolled in a family medicine program during the 2016-2017 academic year who demonstrate:

- Excellence in patient care and clinical expertise
- Commitment to enhancing learning and development opportunities for medical students and fellow residents, through either formal or informal educational, leadership and mentorship activities
- Dedication and excellence in research
- Commitment to the improvement of their local, professional and provincial communities
- Skill and aptitude as an exceptional communicator

Nominations for this outstanding individual can be made by current faculty members, medical students and residents, as well as family physicians in practice.

The winner will be recognized at the OCFP's Awards Ceremony in November in Toronto.

Deadline for Nominations – March 31, 2017
